

Vol 6 2007

Contents

Editorial Preface

Politics, History, Sociology, Cultural Studies

Nessa Cronin

'Disciplinary Ghettos': Irish Studies and Interdisciplinary Negotiations 1

Catherine Maignant

Alternative Pilgrimages: Postmodern Celtic Christianity and the Spatialisation of Time

17

Jean-Christophe Penet

The Young Ireland Movement: Inscribing Ireland's Identity at the Heart of The Nation

29

Mohamed Sa/ah Harzallah

The Construction of Famine Memory in the Irish Oral Tradition

43

Literature

Margaret Mills Harper

'How Else Could the God Have Come to Us?': Yeatsian Masks, Modernity, and the Sacred

57

Yulia Pushkarevskaya

Time and Memory in Jennifer Johnston's Novels: 'A Past that Does Not Pass By'

73

Catherine Kilcoyne

Eavan Boland and Strategic Memory

89

Anne Karhio

Rewriting 'Radical Innocence': Poetic Foundations of Memory and Presence in Yeats, Mahon and Muldoon

103

Ruben Moi

'I, Too, Have Trailed My Father's Spirit': Alternative Memories in the Poetry of Paul Muldoon

119

Sibel Sezen

Poetry and Identity: An Interview with Nuala Ni Dhomhnaill

127

Irene Gilsenan Nordin

'True to the Subversive': Rita Ann Higgins in Conversation

133

Reviews

143

Contributors

163